Cafeteria meal card rules

1. Starting from January 1, 2009, the cafeteria will use electronic meal cards.
 2. The meal card is limited to the assigned cardholder; no borrowing is allowed.
 3. There is no charge for the meal card, however we will charge a $10 for replacement card to protect the balance on your card, if the card is lost or damaged.
 4. If the card is lost, please inform the accounting department as soon as possible so it can not be used any longer for purchasing food.
 5. The card can only be used within the time stated below; it is invalid beyond that time. Please use cash for other purchases.
- (1) Bond International College residence students can use the cards for breakfast, lunch and dinner (weekend or holiday for brunch and dinner).
